What is a hub?

And why have our writers created over 15,000 of them?

Let's start the tour with the obvious question. Just what is a hub?

Hubs are just like web pages. Each one contains an article you write that's filled with insight, advice, information - whatever you'd like to say on your favorite topic.

While there are other methods to create a presence on the Internet, you'll be hard-pressed to find an easier way to:

- Produce all kind of contents with easy-to-use tools. Our non-techie tools allow you to easily load your hub with the content, pictures, link and videos that interests you most.
- Reach a large online audience who shares your interests. The technology behind our hubs gives them the power to reach thousands of people interested in your favorite topic.
- Take advantage of royalty-generating tools. HubPages provides you with easy access to the Internet's top income generating tools: Google ads and eBay and Amazon offers. The opportunity to earn more and more royalties over time simply by writing about your favorite topic is the icing on the cake!

Now that we've explained a hub, let's move on to picking your topic.

Check out the Idea Bank

It's rich with topics readers want to know more about

Many writers who come to HubPages are eager to start writing, but may need some help deciding on a topic. The Idea Bank provides you with a list of topics. Thanks to HubPages technology, we've determined that these topics are requested by Internet users and have the potential to produce traffic.

Scan through them. Some may be right up your alley, while others may spark a newfound interest that will lead you on a whole new path of discovery. Either way, the Idea Bank is full of topics that people are eager to learn more about. Look through it for fresh, new Hub ideas.
